Dear Friends

Thank you for your donation of $100.00

Shon was swept many miles out to sea, in ferocious conditions, off the coast of Haumoana, Hawkes Bay. His surfboard was slippery, his hands were numb. His muscles were aching. It would have been easier to let the board go, to slip under the waves. But he kept thinking of his daughter – five year old Ava.

After almost seven hours at sea, Shon was rescued, against the odds, by Coastguard volunteers. They navigated through huge swells and biting winds to save him.

Survivors like Shon have you to thank, because you are the reason our volunteer crews are able to be out there at all. Your kind gift of $100.00 will help fund vital search and rescue training, so we can continue to rescue stranded people like Shon, and make sure little girls like Ava still have a dad to hug.

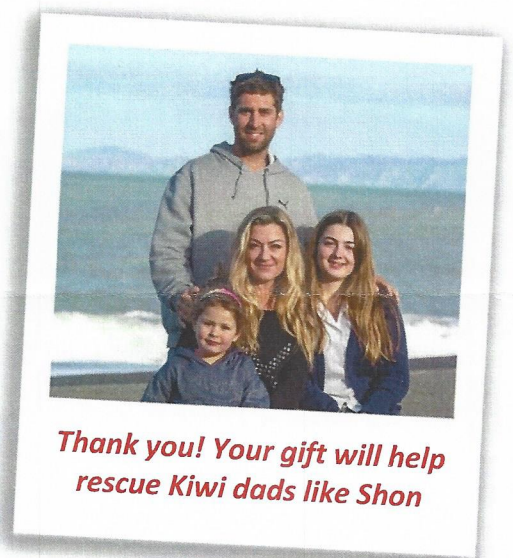

Thank you for saving lives at sea.

Best wishes,

Patrick Holmes
Chief Executive Officer
Coastguard New Zealand

*Thank you
Patricia!*
